Lease Term & Rental Installments

What Should I Know Before I Sign the Lease for My New Apartment?

A lease is a basic agreement between you and the owner of the Auden Buffalo community. The lease is legally binding and enforceable through the legal system. If you choose to move out before the end of the lease terms, you could still be responsible to pay the remainder of the lease agreement.

How Long Is the Lease?

Currently, we are only offering 12-month lease agreements. The standard term is August 14, 2020 to July 31, 2021 with payments made in 12 equal installments.

Can I Terminate My Lease Earlier?

No, the minimum lease term is 12 months and we do not allow early lease termination. However, we offer the option to re-assign the lease if you need to leave Auden Buffalo earlier than your lease end date. You will be responsible for paying 85% of the monthly rent until the space has been completely rented by another individual. Additionally, you have the option to sublet the room. The subletter must apply, be approved by management, sign all lease documents, and pay all fees to successfully take over your lease. Please contact the leasing office for more details.

What Is an Individual Lease?

An individual lease provides each resident with their own separate lease agreement for their specific bedroom. That means you are only responsible for paying your portion of rent. If your roommate is late, transfers to a different unit or moves out, you don't have to worry about a thing, because you are not financially responsible for them. Your rent will not go up and you will not be held liable for any delinquent amounts owed by your roommate(s).

What Is an Installment?

The lease agreement reflects the total rent amount for the contracted period which is typically divided into 12 equal installments due August 1st - July 31st. These installments DO NOT represent a monthly rent amount and are not prorated.

Guarantors

What Is a Guarantor? Do I Have to Provide One Before I Can Move-In?

Yes. All residents are required to have a guarantor to move into their apartment homes. A guarantor acts as a financial co-signer and agrees to be equally responsible for all the rules and regulations of the lease agreement for the entire lease term. That means he/she will be financially responsible for the rent if the leaseholder is unable to pay.

Do I Need a Guarantor in Order to Apply or Sign the Lease?

No, you do not have to wait until you have a guarantor. It will only delay your application and you might risk missing out on our specials. To lock into the special rate, you can submit your application, sign the lease agreement, and add the guarantor later. However, an approved guarantor must be provided prior to the move-in date.

Who Can Qualify as a Guarantor?

A guarantor is usually a parent, guardian, grandparent, sibling, aunt, uncle, or other family member with financial stability. He/She must make a minimum of three times the rent in gross income each month and meet the following requirements:

1. Positive credit and rental history
2. No evictions and foreclosure
3. No criminal history

What If My Guarantor Does Not Meet the Requirements?

If your guarantor does not meet the requirements as outlined above, you are welcome to apply with a different guarantor. We may accept an additional one if the initial guarantor does not qualify individually. In the event another guarantor is needed, we accept a maximum of two guarantors. The exact terms can vary and can only be accurately determined after the applications have been submitted and processed. If an approved guarantor cannot be obtained, we recommend our third-party guarantor service.

Does the Background Check Hurt my Credit Score?

No, background checks are considered soft credit inquiries and will not lower your credit score. It is simply a review of your credit and is not connected to an application for new credit.

Your credit will not be affected.

Financial Aid

How Does It Work with Financial Aid When Living Off-Campus?

If you live off-campus, your living costs can be covered by financial aid, just like on-campus housing. Your financial need is calculated the same way. The major difference is that the bursar will not charge you for your housing expenses. Any available financial aid funds (after university charges are satisfied) are released to you as non-institutional expenses, such as off campus housing. That means you will need to pay your housing expenses directly to us/the landlord, as outlined in your lease. Please contact your university's financial aid counselor for guidance and more information.

How Are the Rooms Assigned?

When applying and signing your lease with Auden Buffalo, you can list your room preference on your housing application. Of course! We are more than willing to accommodate those who already have roommates in mind together. Just list the roommates you have chosen under the 'roommate' tab when filling out your application. It is important that all roommates list each other and that all requests are mutual.

What Happens If the People I Wanted to Live with Don't Sign?

No worries, we can roommate match you for the remaining spots in your apartment, or you can amend your lease to live in another floor plan if we have the availability.

What If I Don't Get Along with My Roommate(s)?

We highly recommend everyone to have a discussion of boundaries with their roommates immediately after moving in. In case of a dispute, we ask that roommates attempt to talk about any issues within the household first and try to work towards a solution prior to contacting the leasing office. If the dispute cannot be resolved, the leasing team will step in as a mediator and may be able to assist with the outcome on a case-by-case basis.

Renter's insurance is required through Greystar! This is a low-cost way to protect your belongings in the event of damage, loss, or theft. As per the liability clause in the lease agreement, Auden Buffalo is not liable for any belongings that are damaged, lost, or stolen.
